

Group Discussion and Application

1. How do we determine if a particular doctrinal teaching is sufficiently different to warrant confrontation and censure?
2. What makes confrontation so difficult?
3. What mistakes are often made in confronting another person?
4. What personal lessons have you learned about confronting others?
5. What Bible principles and passages should govern our confrontation of others?
6. What are the consequences of failing to confront false teaching?
7. What does the NT teach about church discipline (e.g., procedure, attitudes).
8. Why do so many churches fail to enact discipline? What are the results?
9. How is a person called to ministry today? How does a person discern this call?
10. What specific actions should we take to hold more firmly to the truth?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. What can you do to improve your ability to confront others?
2. What action will you take to strengthen your grasp of the truth?

Family Homework

1. How does your family carry out discipline? Why? What makes discipline effective? What are the results? How might it be improved?
2. Do a Bible study on the subject of Church discipline. What is the purpose? How is it to be carried out? With what motivations and attitudes? Etc.
