

Group Discussion and Application

1. In practical terms, how does a person flee from evil?
2. Why is it necessary to not only flee evil, but pursue righteousness, etc.?
3. In practice, how does a person pursue the virtues listed in v.11?
4. Why is it so difficult to maintain eternal perspective and an expectancy of Christ's return?
5. What specific steps can the believer take to cultivate an attitude of anticipation/expectation regarding eternity?
6. Make a list of some of the things we should reflect upon to remain steadfast in our life and ministry for Christ.
7. Which of the motivations considered today do you find most stimulating in your own life and service for Christ?
8. List some of the attributes of God and suggest some of the implications these have on the way we view and live life.
9. If a new believer came to you and wanted to learn more about God, what books (in addition to the Bible) would you recommend he/she read?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. What evils do you need to flee? How will you do this? Be specific.
2. What specific action will you take to pursue righteousness, godliness, etc.?
3. Take some time this week to do some study on the person of God.

Family Homework

1. What are the evils that surround you? How can you flee from these?
2. As a family, do a study on the attributes of God.
(Suggested tools: Nave's Topical Bible; a good Systematic Theology; books on God's attributes, e.g., The Attributes of God by A.W. Pink.)
