

Group Discussion and Application

1. What does adoption into God's family mean in practical terms? What are some of the privileges and responsibilities of adoption?
2. What does it mean to be holy and blameless?
3. What are some common objections to the doctrine of predestination?
4. Some people try to ignore the doctrine of predestination. Why is this doctrine so important?
5. Compare Paul's attitude and response to the doctrine of predestination with typical attitudes and responses of people today.
6. What part of the doctrine of predestination is most difficult for you to understand?
7. Explain the difference between fatalism and predestination.
8. Illustrate how a choice can be voluntary, and yet determined by one's condition.
9. How should the doctrine of predestination affect evangelism?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. How have our studies of Eph. 1:4-6 influenced your views of election/predestination?
2. Compare your own attitude and response to the doctrine of predestination with Paul's attitude and response.
3. Write down your questions and continue your own study of election/predestination.

Family Homework

1. What are some of the privileges and responsibilities you have as a member of your family?
2. What are some of your privileges and responsibilities as a child in God?
3. What does it mean to be holy and blameless? Give some examples.

In Him...We are Chosen

(Part 2) Ephesians 1:3-6, 11-12

- |          |                             |
|----------|-----------------------------|
| 1 | Who were we chosen?  |
| 2 | When were we chosen? |
| 3 | How were we chosen?  |

4 To What were we chosen?

5 Why were we chosen?