

Group Discussion and Application

1. Define the following terms in your own words: unity, mystery
2. How do you think it would have felt to have been a Gentile when the mystery was revealed?
3. Recount how you felt and responded when you first truly understood the gospel was for you?
4. The mystery was revealed long ago. How can we keep our own gratitude for the mystery fresh today?
5. What does it mean to you to have confident access to God?
6. What are some common obstacles to unity among people?
7. Suggest some practical ways the church can demonstrate the unity God brings among believers? How does this impact the world around us?
8. What is our role/responsibility with regard to the mystery today?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. Take some time to quietly reflect on what it means to be included among God's people. Express your response in a written prayer.
2. To whom do you need to make the mystery known? How will you do this?

Family Homework

1. How do you feel when you are let in on a secret? Give an example.
2. The mystery Paul talks about is now an open secret. What is this mystery? With whom would you like to share this mystery?
