

Group Discussion and Application

1. Review what Scripture means by light and darkness. Why are these images especially good analogies for what they represent?
2. C. Leslie Mitton defines goodness as “an attitude of generous kindness to others, which is happy to do far more than is required by mere justice.” Discuss this definition and give some examples.
3. How do we discern what pleases God? List some things that please God.
4. How does living to please God differ from living to earn His favor?
5. How did your motivation in life change when you came to Christ?
6. Share an example that illustrates how light exposes darkness (v.11).
7. What are some of the responses of the world when sin is exposed?
8. How have you witnessed the way a person lives his/her life as being instrumental in someone coming to salvation?
9. What lessons does this passage teach us about evangelism?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. Inspect the fruit of your own life. What evidence do you have that you are walking in light?
2. What changes do you need to make to live more pleasing to God?
3. What specific life-actions might you take to help lead others to the Savior?

Family Homework

1. With adult supervision, take a walk in total darkness. What was it like? What are the dangers?
2. Discuss question #1 at the top of the page. Give some examples of actions that are dark and light.
3. What effect has your own walking in light had on those around you?
