

Group Discussion and Application

1. Why is an understanding of God's attributes so vital?
2. In addition to those listed in the sermon, what are some of the other attributes of God?
3. How should each of the attributes listed in the sermon and in #2 above affect our daily life?
4. What impact should understanding God's attributes (e.g., His holiness and sovereign power) have on the way we worship?
5. What factors have led to a casual, careless worship by so many Christians?
6. What is significant about God's statement in Exodus 3:14, "I AM WHO I AM" or simply, "I AM"?
7. Read John 8:58. What was Jesus saying?
8. What are some of your favorite hymns that declare the attributes of God?
9. What are some of the lessons to be learned from Exodus 3?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. Which of God's attributes are you especially mindful of at the present time? How has this attribute of God affected your life?
2. Do a personal study of God's attributes. Pay particular attention to the Scriptures that support each attribute. A good volume on systematic theology is especially helpful for this kind of study.

Family Homework

At the dinner table each evening, select one of God's attributes to discuss:

- Define the attribute.
- Give some Scripture examples/illustrations of the attribute.
- Find some Bible verses that teach the attribute.
- What does the attribute mean in your life?
- Sing a hymn that proclaims the attribute.

The God Who Delivers

Exodus 3:1-22

What does Exodus 3 teach us about the God who delivers?

1 God is _____.

2 God is _____.

3 God is _____.

4 God is _____.

5 God is _____.

6 God is _____.

7 God is _____.