

Group Discussion and Application

1. What are some of God's promises to His people today? Support with Scripture.
2. How can Scripture promises be misapplied? How do we prevent this?
3. What charge(s) has God given believers today?
4. How does remembering our charge help us endure during difficult times?
5. What does it mean to you personally to know that you have an assigned part in fulfilling God's purposes?
6. In what sense do we minister with God's authority? How might this be misunderstood and abused?
7. What are some of the parallels between ancient Israel's deliverance from captivity in Egypt, and man's deliverance from bondage to sin?
8. How do you view (and read) the genealogies in the Bible? Several values of genealogies were suggested in the sermon. Review these and add others.

Personal Reflection and Response

1. What promise of God is especially meaningful to you at the present time?
2. What Scripture issues this promise? Memorize it.
3. Who do you know who needs to be reminded of one of God's promises?
4. How might you share this promise with this person?

Family Homework

1. Read Ex. 5:1-4, 20-21; 6:9. Imagine yourself in Moses' place. How do you think you would have felt being sent back to talk to Israel and Pharaoh?
2. What promises of God help you face difficult situations?
3. Using a Bible dictionary, do a study on redemption.
