

Group Discussion and Application

1. What applications do you see from today's study?
2. Why was the fulfillment of the detailed predictions of the exodus important to Israel? To Pharaoh and Egypt?
3. How is the fulfillment of the promises and predictions of judgment on Egypt and the deliverance of Israel important to us today?
4. Why was it significant that the plague affected every class of society (from the highest to the lowest—v.29)?
5. What is the lesson we are to learn from the fact that Israel had to be prepared in order to escape judgment and be delivered?
6. Ex 12:42 (NIV, ESV) says God watched over Israel. What Scripture verses give you comfort in knowing God is watching over you?
7. What practical difference does an awareness of God's watchful care make in the way we live life?
8. When are you most mindful (and least mindful) of God's protective care? How can we develop a more constant awareness of God's watchful care?
9. Tell about a time you have seen God grant favor to His people in the eyes of a world that denies or opposes God.
10. Share a time you have seen unbelievers welcome the departure of believers from their midst. Why were they eager for their exit?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. What lesson from this study will you apply? How?
2. Memorize a verse that reminds you of God's watchful presence or protection.

Family Homework

1. Read the account of the exodus in Exodus 12:29-42.
2. What questions do you have about this event?
3. What do you think the Egyptians must have felt? Pharaoh? The Israelites?
4. What are some of the personal lessons we should learn from this story?
