

Group Discussion and Application

1. What is one of the most important/treasured possessions in your home? What is it about this item that makes it special and significant?
2. God manifested His presence over the ark in the tabernacle. How does God manifest His presence today?
3. The tabernacle provided a constant visible reminder of God's presence. How can we become more continually aware of God's presence with us throughout our daily activities?
4. Instead of beginning the description of the tabernacle at the doorway and working into the inner parts of the tent, God begins the description from the innermost part. What is the significance of this?
5. Define "holy."
6. The tabernacle and ark were to be treated as holy. How was this done? How do we respect the holiness of God today?
7. What was significant about the stone tablets being placed in the Ark?
8. A number of attributes of God were represented in the tabernacle and ark. Review these and suggest others that you find represented.

Personal Reflection and Response
