

Group Discussion and Application

1. Share some of your own observations and questions from the text.
2. Cite some Biblical examples of God's faithfulness to the promises He has made to His people.
3. Share some examples from your own life of God's faithfulness.
4. Why is the unchanging nature of God's purpose an encouragement to the believer?
5. In what kinds of things do people today place their hope?
Why do worldly hopes fail to provide a sure anchor for a person's life?
6. What does each of these passages say about the Christian's hope?
1Tim 1:1; Titus 2:13; 3:7; Col 1:27; 2Cor 1:10, etc.
Summarize the object of the believer's hope.
7. What is the hope set before us (v.18)?
8. How does hope function as an anchor for our lives (v.19)?
9. In what practical ways can we "set" the anchor of hope in our daily lives?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. Make a list of examples of God's past faithfulness to you.
2. In what are you placing your hope? How do you know?
3. What action will you take to "set" more firmly the anchor of Christian hope in your own life?

Family Homework

1. Define these words: promise; hope.
2. What happens when someone breaks a promise?
3. What are some of God's promises to Christians?
4. Do your own family study on the subject of the believer's "hope".

Promised Hope

Hebrews 6:13-20

Our assurance of receiving the eternal promise of God is based on...

1

A _____ past [13-15]

2

A _____ promise [13, 16-17]

3

A _____ hope [17-18]

4

A _____ forerunner [19-20]
