

Group Discussion and Application

1. Share your own observations and questions related to our passage.
2. What is the value of this text for believers?
3. What does the study of Melchizedek from Hebrews teach us about our view of Scripture? About our interpretation of Scripture?
4. How do you determine if a statement in Scripture is to be taken literally, or is to be understood as a literary device (e.g., v.3, "without father or mother...")?
5. What does this passage teach us about the person and ministry of Christ?
6. What does it mean to you personally and practically that Jesus is...
...King of righteousness and peace?
...Great High Priest?
7. In addition to the roles and attributes listed in our text (priest, king, righteous, eternal, etc.), what are some other attributes and roles of our Lord? Support with Scripture.
8. When dealing with a passage that is very doctrinal and didactic, how do you go about making it personally applicable?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. What personal, practical application of the text do you see for your own life?
2. How will you implement this application?
3. What questions does this passage raise in your mind? Where will you look for answers? How do you go about determining the proper interpretation?

Family Homework

1. What do you know about your genealogy?
2. Why were genealogies so important in Scripture?
3. Summarize the lessons learned about the lack of Melchizedek's genealogy.
4. Discuss #6 above.

Melchize who?

Hebrews 7:1-10

The writer of Hebrews shows us five respects in which Melchizedek pictured our Great High Priest, Jesus Christ.

1

Melchizedek pictured Christ as both _____ & _____. [1]

2

Melchizedek pictured Christ as characterized by _____ and _____. [2b]

3

Melchizedek pictured Christ as _____. [3]

4

Melchizedek pictured Christ as _____. [1-2, 4-7]

5

Melchizedek pictured Christ as priest of a _____
_____. [3, 5-6, 8-10]