

Group Discussion and Application

1. Share your own observations and questions from this text.
2. Define the following terms from Hebrews 9:
 - Mediator
 - Called
 - Covenant (first; new)
 - Redeem
 - Ransom
3. List some ways the new covenant is like a will.
4. What is the believer's inheritance? How does the believer experience this in part now? To what aspect of the believer's future inheritance are you most looking forward?
5. Verse 23 suggests that the heavenly things were purified by Jesus' blood. What do you think this means?
6. What is an important lesson you have learned from the past few studies related to the new covenant, the high priesthood and sacrificial work of Jesus?
7. Suggest some possible personal applications from this passage.

Personal Reflection and Response

1. Have you responded personally to Jesus' sacrifice by repenting of sin and trusting Him whole-heartedly for salvation?
2. See #7 above. Write your own personal application from this passage. What specific step will you take to begin applying this passage?

Family Homework

1. Read the text. Have each family member list questions from the passage. Then discuss the questions and possible answers.
2. Discuss #2 from the Group Discussion questions above. Give examples of each idea.
