

Group Discussion and Application

1. Share some of your own observations from Hebrews 11.
2. How have you exercised faith this week?
3. What are some of the unseen, promised truths we accept by faith (e.g., v.3)?
4. Give some examples of unknown and uncomfortable situations that we are often called to venture into or endure by faith?
5. What are some of the evidences of faith in a believer's life?
6. Tell about a time when God did immeasurably more than all you asked or imagined (Eph 3:20)?
7. How can we increase/strengthen our faith?
8. Read v.6. Why is impossible to please God without faith?
9. If you were to make a list of men & women of faith, who would you put on your list? (Include both Biblical and more contemporary examples.)
10. The people of faith listed in Hebrews 11 maintained an eternal view on life. What can we do to maintain an eternal perspective?
11. In addition to Hebrews 11, what are some of the important Bible passages that teach us about faith? What do these passages teach?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. What are you facing in your life at the present time that requires faith?
2. What is the appropriate faith response to this situation?
3. Locate and memorize a Bible verse that addresses your present situation.

Family Homework

1. With which character of faith in Hebrews 11 do you most identify at the present time? Why?
2. Are there any examples of faith in Hebrews 11 that surprise you?
3. Select questions from the Application section to discuss as a family.

Faith—It's the Un-thing

Hebrews 11:1-40

Six characteristics of faith

1 Faith sees the _____.

2 Faith accepts the _____ and even expects the _____.

3 Faith ventures into the _____.

4 Faith endures the _____.

5 Faith seeks the _____.

6 Faith results in the _____.