

Group Discussion and Application

1. Where did you first hear the gospel? Describe your own spiritual journey to receiving the gospel.
2. In addition to Sunday morning preaching, what are some other avenues of communicating the gospel today?
3. Describe recent opportunities God has provided for you to share the gospel?
4. Suggest some creative ways we can seize/make opportunities to share the message of salvation with others.
5. How should today's text affect a church's missionary program?
6. Suggest some specific ways we might encourage and minister to our missionaries.
7. What can our church do to prepare and send out more missionaries and pastors from our own congregation?
8. How does a person know if he/she is called to pastoral/missionary service?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. Having heard the gospel, what is your response?
2. Who do you know who needs to hear the gospel?
3. What will you do to help them hear the good news?

Family Homework

1. Make a list of the missionaries our church and your family help support.
2. Locate where they serve on a map.
3. Discuss the challenges these messengers face.
4. Pray for these missionaries. Have each family member write a letter to a missionary you know.

Our Work as Disciple-Makers

Romans 10:13-21

We are committed to...Discipleship

- Personal Bible study, prayer, witness, stewardship and ministry developed as disciplines in the life of each believer
- Faithful, obedient, holy living motivated by love for Christ as an evidence of genuine faith
- Evangelism of the unconverted by believers in relationships that reflect the love of Christ in words and works
- Missionary outreach beyond our congregation through involvement in local and world-wide missionary activities.

What steps lead to salvation?

1 The _____ of messengers.

2 The _____ of the Gospel.

3 The _____ of the message.

4 The _____ of faith.
