

Group Discussion and Application

1. Whose ministry has been especially meaningful to you recently?
Share a recent opportunity you have had to minister.
2. Jesus modeled the multiplication of ministry through the reproduction of His ministry in his disciples. Given the effectiveness of this ministry strategy, why is it so often neglected in ministry today?
3. What makes the delegation of ministry to others difficult?
4. Suggest some specific steps a believer should take to reproducing ministry in someone else.
5. What would help you most to be better equipped for ministry?
6. In practical terms, what does it mean to prioritize ministry?
Give some specific examples of prioritization in ministry.
7. What makes prioritizing ministry difficult?
8. In addition to the ministry principles examined in today's study, what other practices have you found personally helpful in maximizing and maintaining effective ministry?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. Which of the ministry principles examined would help you most in your own ministry?
2. What specific action will you take to implement one or more of these principles in your own ministry?

Family Homework

1. Discuss each family member's strengths, abilities, skills and spiritual gifts and how these might be put to effective use in ministry.
2. How can family members help one another in their respective ministries?

Maintaining Ministry
