

Group Discussion and Application

1. How has the Care Group ministry of Grace Fellowship ministered to you personally?
2. What are some of the practical benefits a small, consistent, close group of believers offers that are difficult to gain in a larger group? Why?
3. Why are believers sometimes hesitant to get involved in a small group with other Christians?
4. List some areas of the Christian life for which we should hold one another accountable as believers?
5. How has accountability to other believers assisted your Christian walk?
6. What makes time spent in the world tiring?
What makes Christian ministry tiring?
7. Explain how time gathered with God's people provides rest for the Christian.
8. How can we more effectively use our time together in small groups to achieve the benefits described in today's study?
9. In addition to those suggested in our text today, what are some more benefits of being part of a small group of believers?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. In what small groups of Christians are you currently involved?
2. What specific action might you take to be a more effective small group member?

Family Homework

1. Have each family member share a list of close Christian friends.
How can these friends help you grow in Christ?
2. In what ways does your family serve to accomplish the benefits described in our study of Mark 6:30-34?
