1. What words best describe your own personal encounter with the living Lord?
2. With which of the characters studied in our text do you most closely identify?
3. In the message we considered some of the effects of Christ's death and resurrection in the life of the believer. What are some additional differences Christ makes in a Christian's life?
4. What specific changes have you noted in your own life as a result of Christ's saving work?
5. How is courage/boldness reflected in the life of the Christian?
6. How does our faith grow/deepen?
7. How did coming to faith in Christ affect your understanding of Scripture?
8. How is the Christian's joy developed?
9. Summarize the message God has given Christians to share with others.
10. It is the power of Christ that transforms lives. What is man's responsibility?
11. What things inhibit the changes God desires in us?

Personal Reflection and Response

1. What is your personal relationship with the living Christ?
2. How will you manifest the results of the resurrection in your life this week? Select one of the effects of the resurrection you would like to develop and demonstrate in your life.
3. In your quiet time this week, reflect on the changes Christ has made in your life. Thank Him for His transforming work.
4. With whom can you share the life-transforming gospel of Christ and your personal testimony?

Family Homework

1. Re-read the text from this study. Write down your own observations and questions. Discuss these together.
2. Take turns selecting from the questions above to discuss as a family.
