

Group Discussion & Application

1. Review the three means we examined in this study that God uses to provide for Christian ministry. Which do we most often fail to consider? Why?
2. Tell about a time you experienced God's power in an amazing, dramatic way.
3. In what "ordinary" ways do you experience the power of God in the course of everyday life? How can we become more mindful of these?
4. From your experience, how would you describe the unbelieving world's attitude and actions toward your Christianity?
5. In what ways does the unbelieving world sometimes (even unknowingly) support and assist Christian ministry?
6. What are some of the freedoms we enjoy in this country that assist us in Christian ministry?
7. What are some specific, practical ways we can encourage and support one another as fellow believers?
8. Make a list of some of the "one another" exhortations in the NT. What do these look like in practical, functional terms?

Personal Reflection & Response

1. Who has assisted you in your ministry? How? Take an opportunity to thank them.
2. What fellow Christian could you assist/encourage in ministry? How?
3. As part of your prayer time this week, thank God for the freedoms and opportunities we have to minister for Christ.

Family Homework

1. Using a computer concordance work on #8 above.
2. Define "kindness".
3. How have others show you kindness? Make a list.
4. To whom could you show kindness this week? How?

Means for Ministry

Acts 28:1-16

Three basic means God used to supply Paul's needs so he might minister for Christ in Rome.
