

Group Discussion & Application

1. Explain the relationship between faith and obedience. Why is it so important to understand this relationship? What are the results of misunderstanding?
2. Tell about your baptism. In what ways was it important to you?
3. What can we do to enhance the celebration of our redemption at the Lord's Table?
4. Fear kept the earlier generation of Israelites from trusting God's promise. What other things keep people from receiving the inheritance God offers?
5. What are some of the blessings the believer enjoys in this life as he/she awaits the fullness of his/her inheritance?
6. In what ways have you experienced new confidence in life as a result of your relationship with Christ? What Scripture truths give you such confidence?
7. What should our attitude be in our worship? How should this be reflected in the way we conduct corporate worship?
8. What is a covenant? What are the implications of a covenant relationship with God?

Personal Reflection & Response

1. What aspect of your inheritance in Christ are you especially thankful for today?
2. Which of the covenant responses examined in this study do you most need to apply to your own relationship with the Lord? How will you respond?

Family Homework

1. Read the article on "Covenant" from a Bible Dictionary.
2. Discuss the importance of baptism and communion in a believer's life.
3. What parts of the believer's eternal inheritance do we enjoy in this life?

Covenant Reminders & Responses Joshua 5:1-15

How did God's people respond to the reminders of their covenant relationship with God?

1 God's people _____ .

2 God's people _____ .

3 God's people _____ .

4 God's people _____ .

5 God's people _____ .