

Group Discussion & Application

1. What does Divine judgment teach us about God?
What does victory thru Christ teach us about God?
2. Does God still pour out His judgment on individuals and nations today?
If so, in what forms? How do we know it is judgment? (cf., John 9:2-3).
3. What is the relationship between judgment, punishment, discipline, etc.
4. What similar attitudes do you see between the Aiites and unbelievers today?
5. Why do many people fail to heed God's warnings of future, eternal judgment?
6. What should the believer's attitude be toward God's judgment?
7. What are some of the blessings of God that we enjoy even in this world?
8. What are some of the battles believers face today?
What does victory in these battles look like?
9. How can we develop a greater sense of dependence on Christ for victory?
How do we develop a deeper gratitude for the victory that is ours in Christ?
10. In practice, how might we credit the Lord with our victories and blessings?

Personal Reflection & Response

1. How much time have you spent thinking about the coming judgment of God?
How often do you think of the victory and blessings that belong to believers?
2. Read Revelation 20:11-21:8 on God's final judgment. As you stand before the Sovereign Judge, what will His verdict be concerning you?
How do you know?
3. Make a list of the victories and blessings that are yours in Christ.

Family Homework

1. List some Bible verses that teach us about God's coming judgment.
What is the application of such verses?
2. Recall some Bible stories in which God grants victory to His people.
What lessons do we learn?

A City of Two Tales

Joshua 8:1-35

Lessons about God's judgment on the ungodly

- 1 Judgment is _____.
- 2 God's judgment is _____.
- 3 We must _____.

Lessons about God's victory for His people

- 1 Victory is _____.
- 2 God's victory is _____.
- 3 We may _____.