

Group Discussion & Application

1. Tell about a time when you witnessed God overcome seemingly insurmountable obstacles.
2. What "horses and chariots" does the enemy use against the believer today?
3. Define: "spiritual warfare."
What are some of the spiritual battles the believer faces in this life?
4. What promises does God give the believer for spiritual battle?
5. Suggest some practical steps the believer can take to develop greater confidence in God.
6. Discuss the relationship between God's sovereign decrees and man's responsible actions.
7. Explain why obedience is important in the life of the believer.
8. Describe the believer's inheritance. What part of these blessings do we experience now? What will we receive later?
9. What aspects of rest does the believer enjoy now? Later?

Personal Reflection & Response

1. What spiritual battles and overwhelming obstacles are you facing?
2. What action will you take to apply the truth of today's lesson to your own battles?

Family Homework

1. Select and discuss questions from the sections above.
2. Do a family study of Ephesians 6:10-18.
3. Discuss the spiritual battles your family members face. Pray for one another.

If God is for Us... Joshua 1 1:1-12:24

*When God's people are faced with overwhelming obstacles, they can face the struggle with confidence,
respond with obedience,
and experience victory and blessing.*

- 1 The Obstacle. When God's people are faced with overwhelming obstacles...
- 2 The Outlook. ...they can face the struggle with confidence...
- 3 The Obedience. ...respond with obedience...
- 4 The Outcome. ...and experience victory and blessing.