

Group Discussion & Application

1. List some common limitations we face in life and ministry.
2. How do these limitations usually make us feel?
How do we usually respond to such limitations?
3. Give some Biblical examples of God overcoming limitations.
4. Share an example (Biblical or personal) of how God opens new avenues of ministry when He closes others.
5. How can you know the gifts, calling, and ministry God has for you personally?
6. Share an example of how God has used other believers to complement your ministry to accomplish what you could not do alone.
7. List some verses that bring you encouragement as you face obstacles and limitations in your life and ministry.
8. Suggest some additional applications of this text.

Personal Reflection & Response

1. What gifts and ministries has God given you personally?
2. What have you seen accomplished by God's grace?
3. What remains to be accomplished in your Christian life and ministry?
4. Set a progress goal in one of these areas of personal growth or ministry.
5. What specific action will you take to work toward this goal?

Family Homework

1. How do you help one another as family members to accomplish a task?
2. What are some abilities God has given you?
What are some of your personal limitations?
3. What are we to learn from our personal limitations?

When the Work Isn't Finished Joshua 13:1-7

Three solutions to find satisfaction when you can't complete the work:

1 Acknowledge you _____.

2 Accept your _____ in God's plan.

3 Trust God for the _____.