

Group Discussion & Application

1. What does faith in the Lord look like? How do others know we trust the Lord?
2. List some verses that speak of humility. What does each teach?
3. Read Philippians 2:3-4. Give some specific examples of how this should manifest itself at home; at work/school; in the church.
4. What are some synonyms for perseverance? How is perseverance developed in the Christian life?
5. Joshua influenced others for God (24:31). What are some practical ways we can influence others (our children, grandchildren, etc.) to walk with Christ?
6. Dale Davis comments, "While passing on the testimony of Yahweh's deeds cannot guarantee the fidelity of the next generation, the failure to pass it on will guarantee their unfaithfulness." Explain. Do you agree or disagree?
7. How does the believer experience rest during this life? Rest from what?
8. What does Joshua's inheritance reveal about God?
9. In what ways does Joshua (and his inheritance), point to Christ?

Personal Reflection & Response

1. We are known by our fruit (Lk 6:43-45). As others inspect the fruit of your life, what conclusions do they draw about you?
2. What changes are needed?
3. What verse(s) speaks to this area of your life? Memorize one.
4. What action will you take to influence others to walk with Christ?

Family Homework

1. When a store clerk or bank teller asks you for proof of identity, what evidence do you give to prove who you are?
2. Have each family member write down the names of the other family members, and beside each name write a word that describes that person. Go around the dinner table and have each person share their list and give the reason they selected the particular word they chose for each person.
3. What are some ways we prove our identity as Christians? (See John 13:35; 15:4-5; 1Jn 3:10, Gal 5:22-23, etc.)
