

Group Discussion & Application

1. What are some of the promises of God's Word for His people today?
Support with Scripture.
2. What are some things people sometimes claim as God's promises that are not? How do we know if a promise is intended for us?
3. Explain how the scattering of the Levites among the tribes was a blessing. What beneficial functions did they serve in the midst of Israel?
What parallels do you see for the believer-priest in the world today?
4. Share an example of God "working all things together for good" from something that did not seem good or was intended for harm.
5. What difference does/should an understanding of God's sovereignty make in the Christian's life?
6. Give an example of how God has used others to meet physical and spiritual needs in your life.
7. What are some practical ways God may use us to provide for others?
8. What does this chapter have to teach us about the care of clergy?
9. What additional applications do you see from this chapter?

Personal Reflection & Response

1. What promise from God's Word is especially meaningful to you today?
2. What impact does the realization of God's sovereignty have on your life?
3. What believer do you know with a physical or spiritual need?
What might you do to help meet this need?

Family Homework

1. Make a list of some of God's promises.
2. Define "sovereign".
Give some examples of God's sovereignty in various areas of life.
3. How might your family help meet the need of another believer?

A Look at the Levites (part 2) Joshua 21:1-45

What does the Levites' reception of the Levitical cities teach about God?
The Levites; receiving of the Levitical cities show us that...

1 God is _____ to the _____ of His _____.

2 God is _____ and powerfully _____ all things.

3 God is _____ and richly _____ for His people.